WASHINGTON CRITIC

"The Town Gone Uraxy!"

This was the expression of P. T. Hall, Shirt Maker, 908 F street northwest, in regard to the unprecedented demand for Fancy Shifts for negligee and dress wear. His line of Oxfords, Cheviots, Madras Flamels, Sliks and Sithwefts show exquisite taste and affords the purchasers wide range for the exercise of his fancy. Such an enterprising house has merited what it has obtained, that is, the patronage of Washington's best trade.

A Card,

About six years ago I engaged in the lee business in a small way, and each succeeding year nearly doubled the business of the year pravious, purchasing of Mr. Frank II. Clergue of Eangor, Me. the largest portion of the lergest tee dealers in this country, was principal owner of the splendid plant known as the Panobacot River loe Company, from which I had received such a choice and abundant supply.

as the Penobscot River Ice Company, from which I had received such a choice and abundant supply.

The Penobscot River has its source in the recky mountains of Maine—few cities line its course to the sea. Its waters are unsurpassed for purity, and with a rapid current we get an excellent ice, free from air and impurity, and its deep channel admits the largest vessels. The Penobscot property being a harvesting, and mine a retail or discributing plant. Inown as the "Willis Ice Company," it was decided between us to combine the two properties and form a stock company, it was decided between us to combine the two properties and form a stock company, it was decided between us to combine the two properties and form a stock company, it was decided between us to combine the two properties and form a stock company, it was decided between us to combine the two properties and deepen as the American Ice Company. This has been done, and we have added the wood and coal business. During the past winter we have built an additional elevator, the largest in the State of Malne, and are now adding a 25,000 for house, making our storage capacity on the Penobscot over 50,00 fons.

We have the best and deepest loading best its at our wharves on the Penobscot liver, where there has never yet been a failure in the supply of ice, Here in Washington we certainly have unequaled advantages, the most valuable wharf property in the city, where the largest vessels He alongside. With ample storage houses for lee and yard toom for coal, wood, laths, ere, the same management and fair treatment of our numerous and increasing patrons will continue in the future. The parade of our forty red ice wagons through our principal streets last Monday evening was intended to show our patrons that we are we'll equipped.

Our capital stock is $120,000, with $114,000 paid up and none for sale at present. The business of the Hangorent will earn this season (which of course is an exceptional one over $2 ter cent on its valuation of last year. Here in Washington w holders.

Mr Frank H. Clergue, our president, and
Mr. Charles E. Field, our Fenobscot mana-ger, see well known gentlemen of the high-est character and business enterprise. I shall endeavor to so manage the Washing-ton husiness as to merit continued conf-dence.

Hene. John Lynch, John Miller, G. Y. AtLee, O. C. Denahoo, J. U. Tayler, George F. Budd, Frank Schwarz, W. J. Lown, George B. Welch, John L. Vogt and Charles H. Fow'er are some of our Washington stockholders.

SPRING ADVICE.

Scientific Magazine.

Be exceful of your diet. You do not not need heavy food such as you require during the winter. the winter.

Spring may be beautiful, but it is treacherous. Do not let it deceive you into a cold, a fever, malaria or pneumonia.

Do not throw oif your winter flannels too early. It is better to suffer a little inconvenience than to take cold.

If you feel tired, feverish or overheated, do not rush off and take "spring medicines." Cool yourself down and in this way help your system and purify your blood.

If you feel hot and thirsty, do not drink inntities of water or other "long". It is much better to take a little pure whiskey and water, which will cuench the thirst, tone the system and fortify against disease. Remember that only pure whiskey should
